CIRCULAR

After due consideration and through discussion, the following instructions were drafted for evaluation of M.Sc. and M.Tech. courses.

- The project viva for M.Sc. and M.Tech. students will be conducted during July 6 to July 9. All M.Tech. students will defend their project on Jul 6 (Monday) and M.Sc. students will defend their project on Jul 7 (Tue) and 8 (Wed).
- Tentatively first 16 M.Sc. students in roll number order will present on Jul 7 while the remaining students on Jul 8. The exact schedules will be intimated to all students later.
- Students should submit the dissertation (soft copy) to their respective guides by email with a copy to the respective exam coordinators (Dr. Murali murali@bicpu.edu.in for M.Sc. dissertations and Dr. Mohane mohane@bicpu.edu.in for M.Tech. dissertations). The guide should endorse the dissertation. The students should send the dissertation by email to coordinators latest by 3rd July. The students should submit the hard copy of the dissertation to the Centre when they visit PU and can get guide and CH signatures on it.
- The students should also submit the power point presentation file to the respective coordinator prior to their date of their presentation (after taking the consent from their guide). The power point presentation file will carry marks and students are advised to submit it promptly to the coordinators prior to their defense for the proper evaluation.
- The viva will be conducted in online mode by the committee comprising of all Faculty of the Centre. The exam coordinators will schedule and coordinate the online meetings.
- Students need to present their work in online mode (google meet) in front of the committee. If a student lack adequate facility for online meeting (genuine cases), (s)he may be allowed to make telephone call interaction with Centre Head. In such case, students should inform their inability for online mode presentation in advance to the exam coordinators/HoD (by 3rd July).
